

Via Claudia Augusta

from BOLZANO to QUARTO d'Altino/VENICE – classic

Starting from the spirited city of Bolzano with its warm and lucent gleaming porphyry rocks and the wine gardens of the famous Lagrein region, along the Adige river you make your way into the charming Trentino. By shuttle transfer you leave Trento behind and ride the famous Valsugana thermal region along Brenta river which accompanies you almost to Feltre. Soon you leave the gracious hills of the world famous Prosecco-production area of Valdobbiadene behind and cycle through tranquil and historically significant cities like Treviso before you reach Quarto d'Altino. By train you ride directly into the centre of Venice - nothing's in the way of strolling through the innumerable alleyways and to discover the Serenissima with its many Palazzi and cultural treasures.

Highlights

-  Original milestone of Rabland, city museum of Bolzano

Itinerary

Day 1: Individual journey to Bolzano

Welcome to the capital of South Tyrol!

Day 2: Bolzano – Castelfeder Holiday Region (approx. 30 km)

In the area of the South Tyrolean Wine Road you ride along vineyards up to Eppan and Caldaro to get to roll down to the idyllic Lake Caldaro. After a comfortable sun(bath) you only have short trip to the city of Ora.

Day 3: Castelfeder Holiday Region – Trento (approx. 50 km)

Today you cycle along River Adige that is lined by orchards until you get to Salorno. The German-speaking part of the South Tyrol ends here. The stage finishes in the town of Trento which features an old town worth seeing with historic buildings like the cathedral and Buonconsiglio castle.

Day 4: Trento – Feltre (approx. 65 km)

An easy start by transfer to Valsugana is followed by a beautiful tour on a new cycle path from Levico Terme along river Brenta to Borgo Valsugana and Primolano. From here you have to take a regular road up to Arsie and Fonzaso in order to finish in Feltre, one of the most important historical cities.

Day 5: Feltre – Pieve di Soligo (approx. 50 km or 60 km via Praderadego-Pass)

Today you've got two options. Either you take the hilly but not too exhausting road through the Proseccovineyards or you take the sporty road and pass by Lentiai and the impressive Praderadego-Pass (approx. 900 Altitude difference). Pieve di Soligo is definitely perfect to relax after a "harder" day.

Day 6: Pieve di Soligo – Quarto d'Altino/Venice (approx. 65 km)

One last push on the pedals and you will reach the lagoon city of Venice.

And the route there has some real highlights to offer. Shortly after Pieve di Soligo, still in the middle of the Prosecco hills, the imposing Castello San Salvatore towers above you, and after a short, busier section of road at Ponte Priula, you reach the "city of art and radicchio" Treviso.

The last section of the cycle path then takes you to Quarto d'Altino – a small town very close to the original starting point of the historic Via Claudia Augusta.

Here, the bike has served its purpose and you can relax and take the train to Santa Lucia station in Venice, a journey of about 20 minutes. From there, the countless narrow streets leading to Piazza San Marco are ideal for exploring on foot. Of course, a romantic gondola ride could also follow as a reward for the many kilometers cycled...

Day 7: Individual Return Journey or Extension
