

Alpine Park Karwendel

Round trip along Bike Trail Tirol

Champs, pros and athletic mountain bikers will love this tour. However, the actual “star” of the tour is the Karwendel mountain range itself. Not for nothing is the Alpenpark Karwendel the oldest and one of the biggest nature reserves of Tyrol. No other region of the Northern Limestone Alps has preserved its natural wilderness and diversity to that extent. There are numerous scenic highlights in the region: Like a fjord, Lake Achensee nestles between impressive mountains and shines in a Caribbean turquoise. Impressive mountain ranges surround alpine pastures that are home to many beautiful alpine flowers and plants. Ancient giant trees welcome amazed bikers in the Eng. And still today the white rivers of the Karwendel follow their natural course. This variety and many other highlights make this tour – not only athletically – a tour of superlatives.

Itinerary

Day 1: Individual journey to Innsbruck

Day 2: Innsbruck – Schwaz (approx. 40 km | 1.000 m ascent)

From the alpine pasture paradise of the Innsbruck Nordkette Mountain Range to the silver town along the Inn Cycle Route. Fancy some more? Then you can climb Nordkette optionally to Arzler Alm (1,067m), Höttinger Alm (1,487m), Bodensteiner Alm (1,661m) or even up to Seegrube (1,905m).

Day 3: Schwaz – Achensee (approx. 20 km | 600 m ascent)

To warm up you leave the miners' town of Schwaz and head towards Jenbach. You are then ready to tackle the ascent to the lakeside shore of Lake Achensee (930m). From there you can optionally continue towards Pertisau and the Karwendeltäler Valleys with their numerous homey huts.

Day 4: Achensee – Hinterriss | Eng (approx. 55 km | 650 m ascent)

You elegantly avoid the steep ascent up Plumsjoch (1,650m) by taking a route along flat or slightly ascending forest trails and roads with little traffic along Lake Sylvensteinsee and Ristal Valley. You get to Hinterriss and the mountain village of Eng (1,200m) and the "Große Ahornboden" nature reserve. If you still want to make some more metres in altitude difference you can climb Plumsjoch from the backside (less difficult ascent). Overnight stay in Hinterriss.

Day 5: Hinterriss – Scharnitz/Leutasch (approx. 60 km | 950 m ascent)

From "Große Ahornboden" to "Kleine Ahornboden" and then to Karwendelhaus hut that majestically towers at an altitude of 1,770m. Hopefully you can still pay attention to the unique play of colours of Karwendelbach brook on your racy downhill ride to Scharnitz.

Day 6: Scharnitz/Leutasch – Innsbruck (approx. 50 km | 1.000 m ascent)

From the Karwendel Mountain Range to the Olympic regions of Seefeld and Innsbruck. After a fantastic downhill from Seefeld to the intersection to Inntal Valley near Zirl you can continue your ride along Inn Cycle Route (labour saving) or if you've still got some energy left ride across the Innsbruck Mittelgebirge. Up there you are rewarded with a downhill that leads almost into the centre of the Alpine capital of Innsbruck.

Day 7: Individual Journey Home or Extension
