Day 4: Kufstein–Rosenheim (approx. 35 km)

Day 5: Rosenheim–Wasserburg (approx. 30 km)

Predominantly your bike tour leads along the dam, partly through lowland forest before you cycle to Wasserburg. The special location in a river loop makes the cityscape so unique. Wasserburg, with its historical old town, picturesque facades and narrow lanes certainly is one of the most beautiful cities along the River Inn.

Day 6: Wasserburg–Mühldorf (approx. 50 km)

The cycle path to Mühldorf leads a bit outlying of the River Inn through lovely farmland, small villages and great high grounds. Typical for Mühldorf is the long drawn-out square with its beautiful town houses.

Day 7: Mühldorf–Kirchdorf/Inn (approx. 45 km)

Take your time to visit two of the most popular pilgrimage sites along your bike route to Braunau. Altötting is Bavaria’s most important pilgrimage place and Marktl birthplace of Pope Benedict XVI. Before cycling to Kirchdorf/Inn, well-worth seeing is the breath-taking city of Burghausen with Europe’s longest fortification.

Example of hotel: Hotel Inntalhof

Day 8: Kirchdorf/Inn–Bad Füssing (approx. 35 km)

Your cycle route leads through the impressive European reservation of the Lower River Inn with its species rich bird world and flora before you reach Bad Füssing offside the River Inn. Enjoy this great health and spa resort.

Day 9: Bad Füssing–Passau (approx. 40 km)

Along your cycle route to Passau picturesque baroque towns invite you for a visit: Obernberg with its lovely market square, the magnificent Monastery Reichersberg and Schärding with its famous Silberzeile.
