Itinerary

Day 1: Independent arrival in Innsbruck

Individual arrival in the Tyrolean capital city. The old city centre captivates through its narrow alleys and the well-known "Goldenen Dachl". The Innsbruck Casino is also one of the loveliest casinos in the world.

Day 2: Innsbruck – Strass in Zillertal valley (approx. 44 km)

You leave the city through the Olympic Town and enjoy a wonderful view of the Inntal valley as well as the bordering mountain ranges. You arrive in today's stage destination Strass at the entrance of the Zillertal valley via Hall and Schwaz.

Day 3: Strass in Zillertal valley - Kufstein (approx. 40 km)

Today you can look forward to several castles, which show you the way to Brixlegg. It is worthwhile to take a hike through the wild romantic Kundler Klamm, before you reach Kufstein, „the Pearl of Tyrol“.

Day 4: Kufstein – Bad Feilnbach (approx. 38 km)

Today you pass the last idyllic Austrian towns like Ebbs and Erl, before arriving in the Bavarian town Neubeuern. Today's stage destination Bad Feilnbach lies in a beautiful cultural landscape with many orchards. This place, known for its mud spa, is also described as the „Bavarian Merano“.

Day 5: Bad Feilnbach - Tegernsee (approx. 48 km)

You ride to Schliersee via Fischbachau. Here you can enjoy a pleasant boat trip, before you carry on to the Tegernsee Lake. This attracts many visitors – whether due to the view over the fabulous Lake or the panorama of the mountain backdrop.

Day 6: Tegernsee - Munich (approx. 65 km)

You cycle primarily through towns with flower-decorated farmhouses and natural forest areas, before arriving in the pulsating cosmopolitan city Munich. One can shorten today's stage by about 25 km if one wishes to, by taking a ride on the Oberlandbahn on one's own.

Day 7: Individual departure or extension
